ELLIOT HEALTH SYSTEM WELCOMES NEW VICE PRESIDENT OF PATIENT CARE SERVICES & CHIEF NURSE EXECUTIVE

Manchester, NH--- Elliot Health System is pleased to announce the addition of Elizabeth Hale Campoli, RN, MSN, OCN, to their senior leadership team as the Vice President of Patient Care Services and Chief Nurse Executive. Beth will play a key role in helping Elliot Health System achieve the highest quality healthcare. Her primary responsibility and focus will be continuous improvement in the quality of patient care, the patient care experience, and the level of nursing practice.

Elizabeth Hale Campoli comes to us with many years of experience in healthcare encompassing new program development, strategic planning, and management of inpatient/outpatient operations.

Prior to joining Elliot, Beth was with Catholic Medical Center where she held the position of Administrative Director Nursing Systems and Support since early 2006. Before joining CMC, Beth held positions at St Joseph Hospital including clinical manager of medical surgical and Program Director of Breast Care Services.

Beth is the President Elect of New Hampshire Organization Nurse Leaders – 2009 and Chairperson of their legislative committee. She is a member of the American Organization of Nurse Executives and on the Board of Directors for the New Hampshire Nurses Association. Beth is a member of the American College of Healthcare Executives and Sigma Theta Tau, Eta Tau International Honor Society of Nurses.

Elliot is pleased to have Beth join the Senior Leadership Team.
