PATRON TEQUILA HAIR COMPETITION BENEFITS THE ELLIOT BREAST HEALTH CENTER

Manchester, NH – The Elliot Breast Health Center, received a check in the amount of $51,385, as a beneficiary of The Patron Tequila Hair Competition and Martini Review. “Dr. Teresa Ponn and I are most grateful to Dean Williams and the Martignetti Companies of NH”, said Dr. Edward Dalton, a breast surgeon for the Elliot Breast Health Center. “We understand there are many important programs and organizations serving women throughout the Greater Manchester community and we want to say thank you for selecting the Elliot Breast Health Center. We are proud and humbled.”

The Patron Tequila Hair Competition raised over $70,000 benefiting the women of New Hampshire. Over 45 hairdressers competed from across New England, showcasing their creativity and imagination as their amazingly coiffed models walked down a 40-foot runway at the Verizon Wireless Arena.

A special thank you all the sponsors who made this event possible: C.B. Sullivan Corporation, The Hippo press, L Newman Associates/Paul Mansback, Martignetti Companies of NH, The Music Factory, The Patron Spirit Company, The Verizon Wireless Arena, Manchester & Nashua Harley-Davidson, NH Oncology & Hematology, Verizon Broadband, Devine & Nyquist Attorneys at Law, Ear, Nose & Throat Specialists of Southern NH, Hanover Street Chophouse & C.R.
