ELLIOT HEALTH SYSTEM PROUDLY ANNOUNCES VICE PRESIDENT PROFFESIONAL & SUPPORT SERVICES AND VICE PRESIDENT OF MARY & JOHN ELLIOT CHARITABLE FOUNDATION

James L. Woodward, President & CEO of Elliot Health System announces the appointment of Rob Glew to the position of Vice President, Support Services and Nicholas Zaharias to the position of Vice President, Mary & John Elliot Charitable Foundation.

ROB GLEW NAMED VP, PROFESSIONAL & SUPPORT SERVICES

Rob has been with Elliot Health System since 2010 when he was named Director of Pharmacy Services. In his role, he oversaw all of the operations of the pharmacy services while successfully designing and operationalizing a free-standing retail pharmacy at River's Edge. Rob is a leader who creates strong teamwork among staff, knows how to operationalize technical and detailed services upon which providers and nurses rely, and inspires and mentors staff to personally develop in their roles.

Rob is a graduate of New England College where he obtained his Masters of Science in Management with a health care administration concentration. Prior to that, he graduated from the Mass. College of Pharmacy where he obtained his Bachelor Degree in Pharmacy with a minor in Radiopharmacy.

“Inviting a strong internal candidate like we have in Rob, to join the senior leadership team is exciting for us,” explained Woodward. “I am confident that given his skill and experience in daily operations from a Pharmacy perspective, as well as his appetite to collaborate in the best interests of Elliot across the health system, will be pivotal to his future success for our professional and support services.”

NICHOLAS ZAHARIAS NAMED VP, MARY & JOHN ELLIOT CHARITABLE FOUNDATION

Nick joins Elliot after serving as Vice President for Philanthropy and Marketing at Lawrence General Hospital (LGH). In that role, Nick raised in excess of $14M and substantially grew the donor base to support the needs of LGH. Prior to working in healthcare, Nick held leadership roles in academia supporting the fund development needs of Cushing Academy, Tilton School and Choate Rosemary Hall.

“It is an honor to join a progressive and well-respected health system like Elliot. I look forward to playing a leadership role in the development and growth of philanthropic support to further improve the health and wellness of our friends, families and neighbors,” said Zaharias.

The Mary & John Elliot Charitable Foundation is the entity which supports the resource needs of Elliot Health System. Jim Woodward explains, “As Elliot continues to try to balance the needs of the community against the cost of delivering comprehensive healthcare, we require a strong leader in the Foundation to partner with patients, families and businesses who have a desire to support our charitable mission. Nick will bring the expertise and energy needed to enhance our existing relationships and welcome new friends to Elliot.”

Please join us in welcoming Rob and Nick to Elliot Health System.
